This extremely intricate design is an attempt to display the final spurt of life before the exploding star disappears forever in the darkness of the universe. So, next time, when you see one....quickly make a wish standing in front of this lucky charm. Art Supervised by Rachna Baldua.

LA- Sacred Rituals (Huichol Indian Art) ~ Hunter ~ Value Priceless

This artwork represents various sacred aspects of Huichol Indians' tribal life. Huichol Indians have lived in a secluded area of Mexico for more than 1000 years. The symbols in this art work represent natural forces & elements such as weather, agriculture, birth & health. It also shows various ceremonies performed by Huichols to contact, learn from and work with these energies. Huichol Indians express their deepest religious feelings and beliefs acquired through a lifetime of participation in ceremonies and rites. From the time they are children, they learn how to communicate with the spirit world through the symbols and rituals. Art Supervised by Preeti Kelkar.
